FROM BRYAN FAIRFAX, ESQ.

ALEXANDRIA Janry the 20th: 1771—

DEAR SIR

I have just time to inform you by Mr. Henderson that I sent up to Mr. Smith and acquainted him that I had sold the Tract on little River provided he had not done so; and that he informed me that he had not, having been with some to look at the Land but as they had no Money he would not agree with them; so that you may depend upon having it if you don't dislike it when you come to see it.

With my Compliments to Mrs. Washington I remain

Dr Sir Yr. most obedt. & obliged hble St. BRYAN FAIRFAX.

I beg the favor of you to give the inclosed to Mr. Rind.¹
